

Project Manager: Fundação Amazonas Sustentável (FAS)

IMPACT

Sustainable production Component (1)

Activities that maintain the forest standing are economically attractive in the Amazonas State

IMPACT Land-use planning Component (3)

Social organization activities empower communities in protected areas (PAs) in state of Amazonas for territorial management and sustainable use of natural resources

OUTCOME (1.1)

Identified economic activities of sustainable use of natural resources and developed in 16 state protected areas, in their surrounding areas and in ecological corridors in the state of Amazonas

OUTCOME (1.2)

Expanded forest-based economy with added value in 16 state protected areas, in their surrounding areas and in ecological corridors in the state of Amazonas

OUTCOME (1.3)

Increased technical capacity of community leaders on management and good natural resource management practices with knowledge and technologies disseminated

OUTCOME (3.2)

Social organizations strengthened in 16 state protected areas covered by the Bolsa Floresta program in the Amazonas state

OUTPUT

Implementation of investments for sustainable production by the residents' associations of 16 Amazonas state protected areas

OUTPUT

Preparation of business plans and structuring of selected production chains in 16 state PAs

OUTPUT

Implementation of small and medium sustainable community-based productive projects selected through a public call in areas surrounding PAs and in ecological corridors in the state of Amazonas

OUTPUT

Training of leaders for selfmanagement of associations and good management practices of natural resources

OUTPUT

Systematization and dissemination of methodologies, lessons learned and innovative solutions, through publications, videos and communication events

OUTPUT

Structuring, maintenance and strengthening of associations at state PAs served by the Bolsa Floresta Program